

Conference details

Title: AISS – Academic Intelligence and Security Studies

Location: The Romanian Diplomatic Institute, Bulevardul Primăverii, nr. 17, Sector 1, Bucharest, Romania

Organizing institutions: KROSS Association, FSPUB (Faculty of Political Science, University of Bucharest),

Partners: Romanian Diplomatic Institute, PRORISE (FSPUB), Fundamenta Politica Research Center, TANIS Foundation

Event schedule:

- Day One, Friday, November, 19th

09.15 – 09.45 – Welcome socialization; Coffee

09.45 – 11.45 – Opening speeches, Conference presentations

Radu Carp, FSPUB/RDI – Welcome Opening

Silvia Marton, FSPUB – Opening

Chris Farrands - 'Securitisation at the political economy/discursive practice frontier'

S.G. Sebe – 'Academic Intelligence Is Knowledge Based Action for the Future'

Florin Rădulescu – 'Action through Mathematical Thought – Ramanujan conjecture and social networks understanding'

11.45 – 12.00 – Coffee

12.00 – 14.00 – Conference presentations

Giovanni Ercolani - 'From George Smiley to Quantum or on Fiction, Reality, and Creativity around Security'

Camil Pârnu - 'Expert Judgement and Political Representation'

Luciana Ghica - 'Security and Development, Two Faces of the Same Coin?

Challenges of Security Studies and International Development Studies Curricula after the Cold War'

Dragoş Mateescu - 'Discoursing stability: conceptualising minorities in the human domain of Turkish sovereignty'

14.00 – 15.00 – Lunch

15.00 – 16.30 – Conference presentations

Dragoş Petrescu – 'Secret Police and Intelligence: Communist Romania in an East-European Context'

Ruxandra Ivan - 'Whose responsibility to protect whom? An inquiry into the notion of "R2P" in international politics'

Enzo Rossi - 'Reconciling Human Rights and Security in the Asylum Seekers Reception'

Silviu Matei – 'From Integrated Data Analysis to Electoral Intelligence'

20.00 - Dinner

- Day Two, Saturday, November, 20th

09.30 – 10.00 – Welcome socialization; Coffee

10.00 – 12.00 – The I4F (Intelligence for Future) Program and Security Studies

12.00 – 12.30 – Coffee

12.30 – 14.00 – Networked Undergraduate/Graduate Erasmus Programs